ORDER :

Where as in the reference 1st read above, the Director General, Anti Corruption Bureau, Hyderabad has brought to the notice of the Government that Sri B.Venkat Reddy, Assistant Commissioner of Labour, Vijayawada has acquired assets disproportionate to the known sources of his legal income and in the reference 2nd read above he was requested to issue orders for attachment of the properties of the Accused Officer which were found to be disproportionate to the known sources of income. Accordingly orders were issued in the reference 3rd read above.

2. In the reference 4th read above, the Director General, Anti Corruption Bureau., has submitted the final report recommending to drop action against the individual as it was found that acquisition of assets which are disproportionate are worth of Rs.1,92,679/- ps. which is below 10% of his total income. The Director General, Anti Corruption Bureau., however recommended to initiate departmental action against the individual for violation of Rule 9 (1) of APCS (Conduct) Rules 1964, as he has not informed about the receipt of rental and agricultural income in the corresponding Annual Property Returns and the loan obtained from Andhra Bank, under income item Nos 3,4,5 and 6 and expenditure item Nos 9 and 10.

3. Government after careful examination of the matter have considered the recommendations of the Director General, Anti Corruption Bureau, Hyderabad and dropped further action against the individual vide reference 5th read above. However, departmental action has been initiated against the individual vide reference 6th read above. In the reference 7th read above, Sri B.Venkat Reddy, Assistant Commissioner of Labour, Vijayawada has submitted his explanation to the Commissioner of Labour that he has not violated or deviated from the provisions of the APCS (Conduct) Rules intentionally and hence he has requested to drop the charges framed against him. In the reference 8th read above, the Commissioner of Labour has sent the written statement of defence of the individual and recommended that further enquiry on the charges framed against him may not be required since the individual has admitted the charge and submitted the reasons. Therefore the Commissioner of Labour has requested the Government to issue appropriate orders in the matter.

4. And whereas, Government after careful examination of the matter have decided to drop further action against Sri B.Venkat Reddy, Assistant Commissioner of Labour, Vijayawada. Accordingly, they direct that further action against Sri B.Venkat Reddy, Assistant Commissioner of Labour, Vijayawada be dropped.

5. The Commissioner of Labour is directed to take further action in the matter and to send the compliance report to Government.
